

Exciting Opportunities Available

CGSA's Standing Committees are the lifeblood of our organization. The input of our members in the six areas noted below helps to shape the very programs and services that the CGSA provides on a daily basis and provides an exciting opportunity to meet people from across the country and get first hand, and in many cases, advanced knowledge of the issues and situations affecting golf course management in Canada.

The six committees include:

- Environment
- Communications, Marketing and Public Relations
- Professional Development and Research
- Conference and Events
- Member Services
- Equipment Technicians Advisory

Please follow the attached link to review the Committee mandates.

If you are interested in serving on a committee, please advise the CGSA office in writing by January 10, 2012, noting the committee on which you would prefer to participate. The Board of Directors will establish the committee rosters at its post conference meeting. Volunteers will be notified in writing by March 30, 2012 of committee appointments. Please note a second choice! Although our Committees are generally at capacity your interest in assisting the CGSA will assure that you receive an appointment. Please understand that we may not be able to accommodate your chosen preference.

Please complete the following and return to the CGSA by January 10, 2012.
