

BCGSA Professional Development Days - Virtual Conference

This year the BCGSA Professional Development Days event, like most other large gatherings, had to be cancelled due to COVID-19. In keeping with the BCGSA's commitment to providing opportunities of networking and education to its members, the Board of Directors of the BCGSA has decided to host a Virtual Conference from November 16 – 18, 2020.

As the current pandemic has made it difficult obtaining education opportunities and CEC's for continuing education, we are pleased to send this notification and schedule of events out to allied associations to forward to your members if you so desire. The cost for all three days of education is $200.00 per person.
